Description:

The former village school, nowadays a lovely country retreat, amidst the overwhelming Corrèzien nature, offering tranquility in the setting of a tiny, peaceful hamlet.

Entirely renovated the house consists of:

Entrance hall

Spacious reception room (the former classroom) with a 80 m2 surface and magnificent inglenook, height to ceiling an impressive 4 meters

Kitchen/dining room with inglenook, surface 40 m2

On the floor 3 bedrooms and bathroom

Lovely characteristics still in place: the old school bell, row of pegs.

Attached to the house a garage in course of construction almost finished, offering a nice 110 m2 with cellar; the exterior of the garage will be in stone as well.

On the 6.700 m2 of land adjoining the house; a vegetable garden, shack and tennis court in construction une école
